

YWCA Women's Residence

The Women's residence is a single-room occupancy housing located in a historic building near downtown Newburyport a short walk from the ocean, shopping, and public transit. Women share bathrooms and a kitchen. Common rooms include a living room with TV and a quiet room with sofas and chairs. Heat and electricity are included. Bedrooms are wired for phone, cable, and internet for residents who pay for this service. This housing is best suited for women who are on the go pursuing their passions and need a place to recharge.

Affordable housing for independent women:

- Single occupancy for adult females only. No visiting guests are allowed.
- Smoke-free building.
- No pets allowed.

Application Process:

- We thoroughly screen applicants to ensure a safe and supportive environment. This may include:
 - Background checks and fiscal screening.
 - Personal and landlord references.
 - Proof of income and assets.
- Multiple interviews may be required.

Please note:

- This is not supportive housing.
- Applicants must be able to live independently.
- There is no waitlist. Applications will be discarded when we reach full occupancy.
