

YWCA Women's Residence

The Women's residence is a single-room occupancy housing located in a historic building near downtown Newburyport a short walk from the ocean, shopping, and public transit. Women share bathrooms and a kitchen. Common rooms include a living room with TV and a quiet room with sofas and chairs. Heat and electricity are included. Bedrooms are wired for phone, cable, and internet for residents who pay for this service. This housing is best suited for women who are on the go pursuing their passions and need a place to recharge.
